

About

Mangiante Photography offers an efficient business portrait service. We have experience photographing companies both large and small for use in Web sites, brochures, business cards or other promotional purposes. In most cases, our staff is able to provide you with a digital CD of your images before you even leave the studio. We are normally able to accommodate last-minute appointments, but kindly request an appointment for each session.

We also offer a mobile service for on-site studio sessions at your convenience. Retouching and other services are also available. We offer a variety of prints a-la-carte and in packages, which can be mailed directly to you in approximately five business days.
